Memo

To: Bartelme Park Advisory Council
From: Maria Dmyterko Stone, Community Relations
Date: October 12, 2020
Re: Bartelme Park Advisory Council Standing

The Mary Bartelme Park Advisory Council is in good standing based on Chicago Park District guidelines.

The Mary Bartelme PAC consistently submits the Annual Report required of all PACs, holds open meetings, and is supportive of the park.

Since their inception the Bartelme PAC has produced and funded numerous free events for the community in the park allowing the Chicago Park District to provide resources to other parks in the city.

The Bartelme PAC holds monthly meetings which includes a Treasurer's report.

The PAC Officer Board term is every 2 years. Due to the COVID 19 pandemic the Chicago Park District requested that all Park Advisory Council hold off elections until 2021 when PACs can meet again in person. The Bartelme PAC will hold an election once they are advised to do so.

The Chicago Park District guidelines and Bartelme PAC bylaws do not have term limits. PAC board members can continue to serve provided they are reelected for a new term.

The Chicago Park District would like to thank the Mary Bartelme board and members for their service and support of the parks!
